Santa Fe Relocation names Kobus Fourie as Managing Director for Santa Fe Australia

Santa Fe Relocation, a global leader in mobility and relocation services, announces the appointment of Kobus Fourie as Managing Director for Santa Fe Australia.

“Fourie is a key hire for Santa Fe, with exactly the right background and experience to drive the needed agenda for Santa Fe Australia,” said Martin Thaysen, Group CEO for the Santa Fe Group. “With accomplishments in transformational leadership, he is seasoned in achieving top line growth, strengthening of customer service and quality, as well as improvements of financial business performance.”

Prior to joining Santa Fe Relocation, having lived and worked in South Africa, Ghana and most recently in Indonesia, Fourie brings solid leadership from the Travel, Security and Logistics industries. Fourie has successfully led businesses in Africa, Middle East and Asia, and holds Masters Degrees in ‘Business Leadership’ and ‘Strategic Supply Change Management’. Fourie’s career has allowed him to gain significant and broad experiences, and recognises the importance of teamwork, company values and culture.

Mr Fourie added: “I admire the passion of the Santa Fe people with their intense focus on the customer experience, and I look forward to being part of delivering the 2020 Strategy with the Australian team. I feel privileged to have been accepted by Santa Fe Relocation and to be part of its ongoing success.”

Santa Fe Australia contributed EUR 57.7m to group revenue in 2016 and have over the past two years gone through a restructuring and transformation of the operation. The company is now entering the next stage of the strategy with a focus on customer experience, growth and employee engagement.

Fourie will be based in our Australia head office located in Melbourne, and will report directly to Patrick White, Asia Pacific, Middle East and Africa CEO.
